

Service Delivery Instructor Job Description

Title:	Service Delivery Instructor
		FLSA:
		Non - Exempt

Job Summary

The Health & Safety Instructor's primary responsibility is to instruct classes to community groups at the building and/or at community or corporate sites. This position is responsible for providing high quality instruction, providing necessary reports in a timely manner and properly maintaining equipment in their possession or under their delegated responsibility.

Responsibilities

- Instruction: Teaches Health and Safety courses within their current certifications to businesses and to the community. Confirms course at least 3-5 business days before the scheduled course. Must arrive to teaching site a minimum 30 minutes before class is to begin.
- Supply Chain/Logistics: Responsible for maintaining, managing and storing all assigned equipment, including storage at assigned work location and transporting equipment in personal vehicle. Responsible for re-ordering all necessary equipment at least once per month and maintaining and managing an active inventory of supplies at all times. Instructors are expected to transport, load/unload, carry and/or lift equipment as necessary at assigned teaching locations. At conclusion of class, is responsible for the cleaning equipment according to established decontamination guidelines and reporting any maintenance issues to the appropriate logistics staff member.
- Quality Assurance: Responsible for applying quality assurance and control programs. Integrates quality improvement activities and measures in overall service provision. Ensures that the proper safety measures are in place to protect customers and staff who participate in the training activities.

- Resource Management: Responsible for efficient and effective use of resources. Adheres to the financial and registration policy regarding unregistered students in Community classes.
- Availability: Instructors commit to a fixed availability schedule within the scheduling software, [REDACTED] to meet teaching needs of the territory.
- Communications/Reporting: Engages in regular communications with Supervisor, Service Delivery Instructors regarding course updates and latest changes to products/services. Actively submits unavailability requests, as necessary, in [REDACTED] when not available to be assigned to classes. Submits training activity and other course related records according to standard timelines. Where applicable, training and course-related records must be submitted electronically using the [REDACTED] web-based learning center. The instructor is required to use the corporate email account [REDACTED] issued to him/her upon hire, for all [REDACTED] related correspondence.
- Personnel Management: When an instructor's certification is at the level of an Instructor Trainer, they may mentor or coach other instructors as a part of new instructor orientation or during instructor remediation provide supervision to instructors to ensure high quality delivery of services and products.
- Additional duties may include the following: Participation during Town Hall Meetings, quarterly In- Service Training, Product updates, training requirement, certification classes and approved development training. In addition, instructors may need to perform light logistics such as restocking of equipment. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Qualifications

Education: High School Diploma or equivalent (GED). Current certification to be an instructor in discipline is desired. Additional training and certification will be provided to qualified candidate after hire through [REDACTED] Health & Safety Service courses. Once certified, the instructor must maintain current basic and instructor level certifications for the courses they have been hired to teach.

Experience: Previous experience in education, adult training or service industry preferred. Basic computer and email skills and demonstrated ability to utilize MS Office programs. Comfort and experience in using audio-visual technology (computer/LCD, PowerPoint, etc.) for educational delivery.

Skills and Abilities: Must have strong presentation abilities and demonstrate excellent verbal and written communication skills. Ability to communicate course material in a clear and understandable manner. Customer service orientation. Ability to teach effectively in an adult learning environment.

Other: Fixed availability schedule required during the day, evening or weekends.

Travel: Ability to travel regionally 50-75%. Current Driver's License preferred. Access to reliable transportation to training sites.

Competencies

To be determined.

Essential Functions /Physical Requirements

Depending on work assignment, may require ordinary ambulatory skills sufficient to visit other locations; or the ability to stand, walk and manipulate (lift, carry, move) light to medium weights of up to 40 pounds. Requires good hand-eye coordination, arm, hand and finger dexterity, including ability to grasp, and visual acuity to use a keyboard, operate equipment and read technical information. Overall mobility is essential. May include sitting for long periods of time, driving a vehicle and working under challenging conditions.

